WE DEDICATE

We, the Class of 1961, proudly dedicate this issue of the yearbook to Our Dean of Women, MISS LOUISE BREWER

. . . Her integrity, understanding manner, and awesome dignity have been a great inspiration to us during our two years at V. I.

. . . Her motherly interest has encouraged our triumphs, checked our downfalls, and guided our thoughts toward the attainment of greater knowledge.

. . . Her constant striving to instill the true Intermont spirit in each of her girls makes her a truly great lady in every respect.

Because of these things and because we want her to know how much she is admired and respected, the Class of 1961 is proud to dedicate the 1961 INTERMONT to Dean Brewer.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

Dr. Floyd Turner

Dear Seniors:

As you assume your rightful place in society, you will soon become aware of the fact that education in itself is inadequate for the tasks which lie ahead. You will also come to realize that the need for leadership in all areas of human relations is greater now than in any previous period in history. It is my hope that at this time you will dedicate yourself to the purpose of achieving as high a degree of maturity as possible in all of the different areas of development and life. Only this would be a worthy application of what you have accomplished thus far.

My very best wishes to you for the future.

Cordially yours,

FLOYD V. TURNER
President

Mr. Carl Todd

Dear Seniors:

Your Intermont years have furnished worthwhile experiences, and many challenges have existed here for you. As you continue to another college or university, pursue some vocation, or marry, strive to find challenges and conquer them. Live each day abundantly, realizing that the experiences of today are different from those of yesterday. Each tomorrow brings precious anticipation. Think deeply, honor God and yourself, and share your God-given gifts with others—then you will find life sweet.

Most cordially,
CARL E. TODD
Dean of the College

Miss Louise Brewer

Dear Seniors:

It seems such a short time since we said, "Dear Juniors, welcome to V. I." Do you remember in your Junior year the thrill of the Song Contest, and later the excitement of the Effigy Hunt when you Juniors broke the record of years and found it? And do you remember how beautiful the campus was in the spring?

This year you have had again that thrill plus the renewal of friendships, the making of new friends, and the joy of helping your Little Sisters learn to love our Alma Mater.

Now it is the time to say "Farewell, dear Seniors." It has been so much fun to share your good times; to watch you grow and develop in mind and body; to gain poise and assurance; and to assume your responsibility as good citizens on the campus.

When you leave Intermont to follow the career of your choice, we wish you success and happiness as you work toward the realization of your dreams.

Senior Torchbearers

In every group, there are a few individuals who are outstanding and respected. At Virginia Intermont, these individuals are recognized by their classmates and proclaimed to be the Torchbearers of their Class. These girls are:

. . . Always willing to be a true friend to all they meet.

. . . Possessors of a strong character, a sparkling personality, and leadership.

. . . Never too busy to lend a helping hand or a sincere smile when one is needed.

They will carry the best qualities of this school wherever they may go, for these girls symbolize the ideals upon which Virginia Intermont was founded.

Senior Class Proclamation Song

Through the guidance of the Father,
We have come to V. I. C.
Our seal we'll ever cherish,
The lamp, the book, the key.
On us each rests sacred honor
That will last our whole life through.
We will stand for what we know is right
In each new thing we do.
And as the years go by,
We'll sing her praises high,
Rememb'ring once again her pride and fame;
And tho' we may depart,
A corner of each heart
Will cherish evermore the hallowed name
Of our noble Alma Mater,
Where we learned of loyalty,
And we shall not forget that lesson
Through eternity.

Junior Class Proclamation Song

From all corners of the country, to the mountains of V. I.,
We will hold our golden seal strong and true.

All our days are bright and happy and the future it will bring, the mem'ries V. I. gave us through and through.

Sing praise the Alma Mater, our beloved Intermont . . .
She will grant us every yearning, every want.

With the book and the key to guide us on,
Faith-ful-ly.
We will cherish in our hearts when we are gone,
V. I. C.

Stately tower and surrounding thee,
fountain, flowers, the majestic trees.
These we'll hold in reverie, V. I. C.

DEPARTMENTAL ACTIVITIES

Ballet Department

Classes in ballet are open to Virginia Intermont College students at the Constance Hardinge School of Ballet in downtown Bristol. Girls may enroll in classes twice a week for physical education credit, or those seriously interested in ballet may take as many classes per week as their academic schedule permits.

V. I. ballet students work out in the downtown studio of Miss Constance Hardinge. Here the girls are perfecting their arabesque position.

Below, the students demonstrate "beauty of line," with correct placement of the entire body.

Miss Hardinge is well known as one of the most capable instructors of ballet in the southeast. With the town students and the Virginia Intermont girls, she has presented numerous concerts and performances of a professional quality here in Bristol and in the surrounding area.

Miss Hardinge takes a personal as well as academic interest in each and every one of the Virginia Intermont girls under her instruction.

On stage for a fine performance of "Ballett Rococo." Of Miss Hardinge's repertoire this ballet has been performed many times to very receptive audiences.

Here the students are shown in a front attitude position. This position is one of the most difficult to beautify and perfect in ballet.

Drama and Speech Department

There is always some activity in the little theater of the new Fine Arts Building. And usually it is because Mr. Richard Beaty, head of the Drama Department, and his students are in the midst of the production and presentation of their latest play.

Courses in acting, directing, oral interpretation, and history of the theater develop individual expression and a keen interest in the theater for those girls interested in drama as a hobby or a career.

The personification of garbage pails, teapots, and poison ivy make up a typical day in acting class.

For the last time: "Is that right?"

"Interesting, those beeps."

"Practice makes perfect."

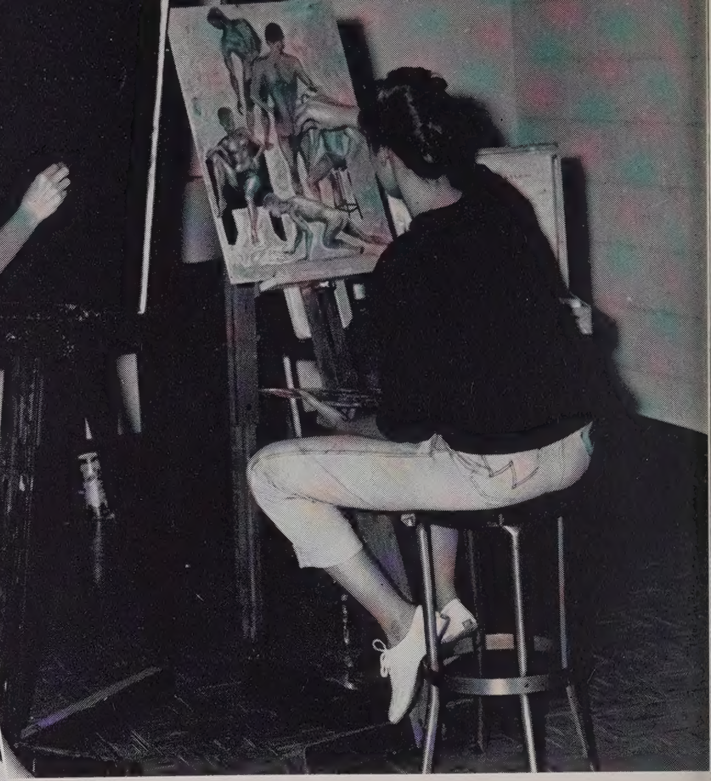
Trips to local radio and television stations, plus working at the Bristol Speech and Hearing Clinic, make V. I.'s Speech Department one of the most active and interesting groups on campus.

Under the guidance of Mr. Richard L. May, students not only improve their speaking habits, but carry the application of their lessons into the surrounding community. Also, Virginia Intermont's Speech Department sponsors an annual oratorical contest.

"Roger, and out———"

Knights of the round table.

"Now, just a dab to the right."



Imagination.

Fine Arts Department

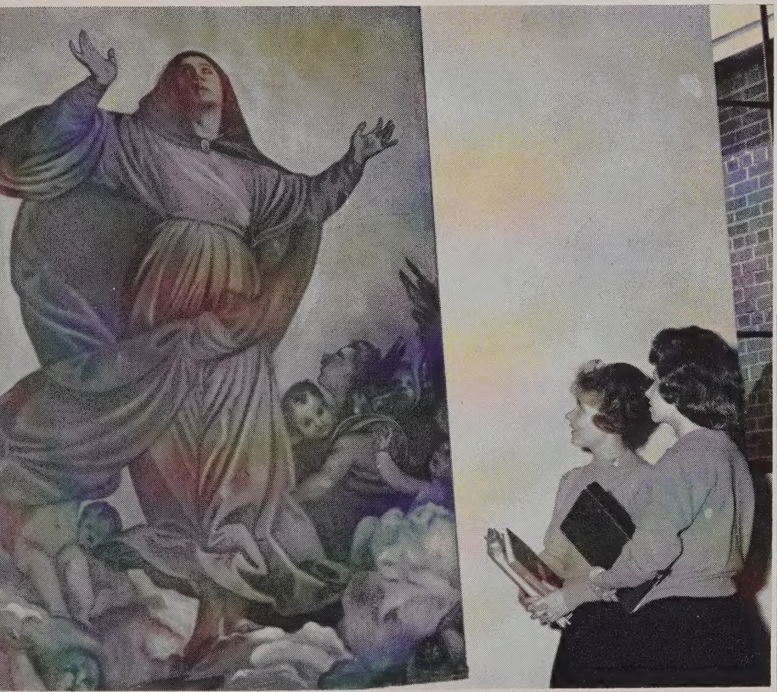
"Only Mr. Ward can make the alphabet so fascinating."

Amid a chaos created by tubes of oil paint, sticky brushes, and unfinished canvases, several Virginia Intermont students seek to express their individual ideas and emotions artistically. Whether art be a hobby or a career, each of these girls develops her particular talent under the supervision of Mr. Joe Ward and Mr. Al Todd.

The V.I. Art Department offers courses in drawing, painting, sculpture, and applied arts, in the modern atmosphere of the new Fine Arts Building which opened for classes in February of 1961.

"The painting, girls—the painting!!!"

Intermont students have had many occasions to appreciate their Art Department for various exhibits which have been displayed in the student center throughout the year.



"Someone to watch over me."

V. I. Art Department goes 3-D.

Patience is a virtue.

Home Economics Department

"Next time, you wash and I'll dry."

...R FLIGHT TO THE FUTURE
...E ECONOMICS

"She'll never notice that we forgot the salt."

"Dior says hems must go up this year."

Almost every V. I. girl will someday need to know the fine arts of cooking, sewing, and budgeting. For, in spite of all our modern advances, an efficient homemaker is still the basis of the American way of life.

Intermont students learn the modern whys and wherefores of good homemaking through the classes offered in the Home Economics Department, headed by Miss Sarah Fortune.

"For the rest of my life?"
"Now, this book says—."

"The way to a man's heart—."

"At last, it fits!"

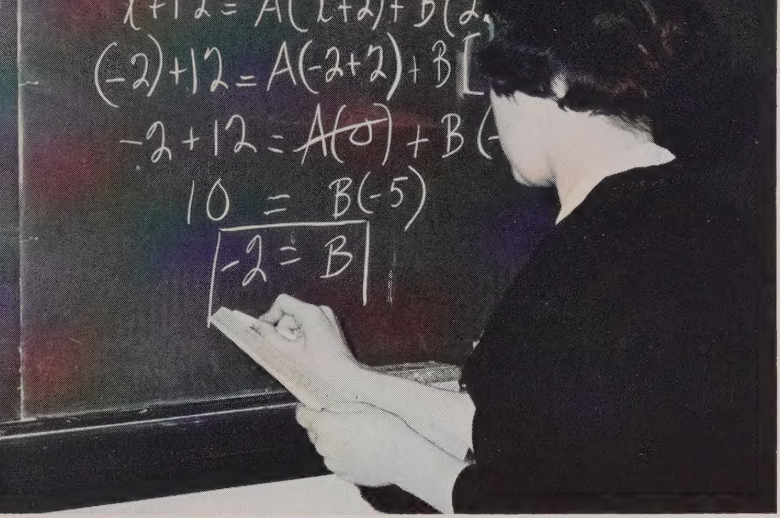
Department of Languages

The purpose of the language department is to give the students a deeper appreciation and a better understanding of things literary, either in English, French, or Spanish. This department offers classes in English grammar and writing techniques, as well as classes devoted to promoting grammatical ease and speaking ability in French and Spanish. There are also advanced literature courses available for students who are particularly interested in these three languages.

"Lest we should forget Shakespeare."

"Buenos dias, whoest we-us?"

"La plume de ma tante—."



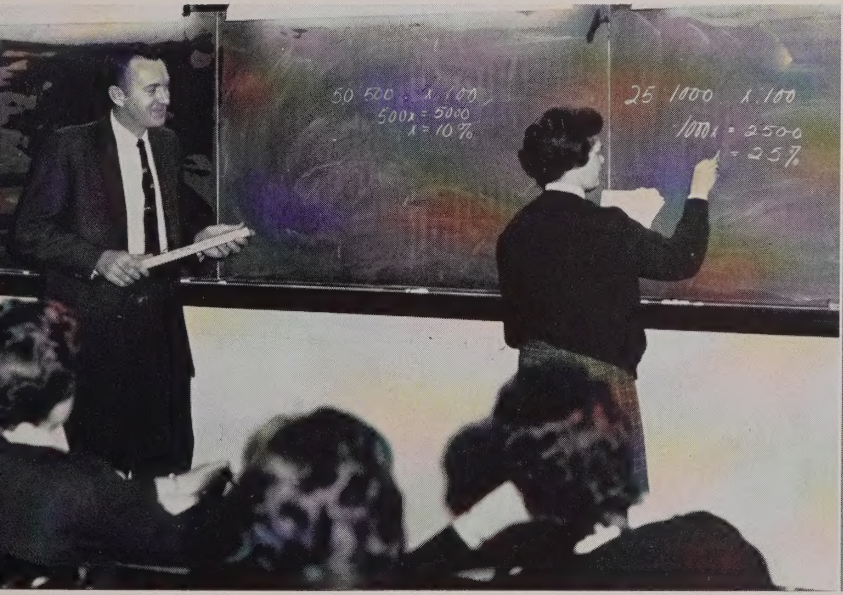
Above and beyond the call of duty.

Mathematics Department

Although the square of the hypotenuse seems rather confusing to many, William G. Buckner presents this material to his students as thoroughly and as painlessly as possible.

The Mathematics Department offers classes in algebra, trigonometry, calculus, and analytical geometry to aspiring mathematicians, and to girls wishing to develop a firm mathematical background in the career of their choice.

"Does that snow you, Gal?"



"Forget it!"

"Sure beats freehand!"

Music Department

Whether it be a course for study or a source of relaxation, music is an integral part of campus life at Virginia Intermont.

Under the direction of Mr. Ralph Osthoff, and the teaching of Miss Frances Eller and Miss Margaret Maxwell, the Music Department offers specialized training in voice, piano, organ, and violin. Recitals are presented during the year by the chorus and by individual music students, many of whom are members of the Alpha Beta Chapter of Phi Beta, a national music fraternity.

V. I. is a member of the National Association of Schools of Music.

A sharp; F flat.

"And be sure to listen for the pizzicato."

Spellbound!

V. I. Chorus on Parade.

Beethoven's Fifth Twist.

Nursing Department

Virginia Intermont is one of the few junior colleges with a two-year nursing program. This program, under the direction of Mrs. Marilyn Mauk, includes academic work on campus and fundamental and clinical nursing at the Bristol Memorial Hospital. The two-year course also includes a summer session in psychiatric nursing at Williamsburg, Virginia.

"Dem bones, dem bones, dem dry bones."

Shop talk or boy talk?

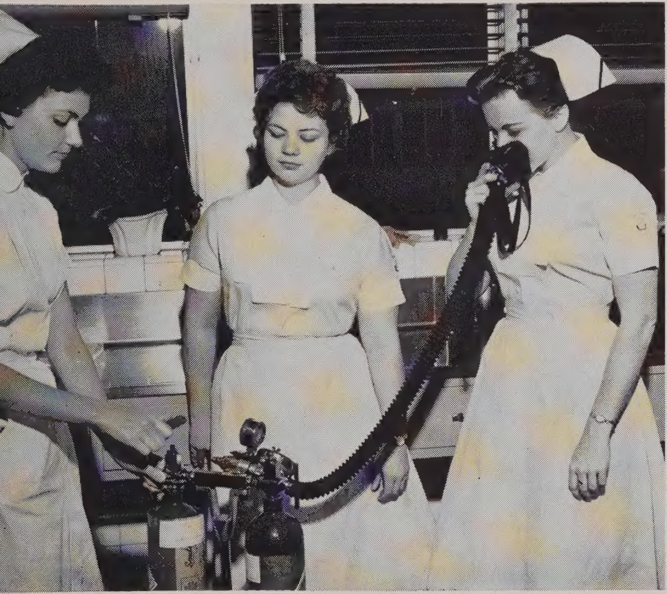
Upon graduation with an Associate of Arts degree, nursing students are eligible to take the National League of Nursing Examinations. After passing the exams, they are recognized registered nurses.

V. I. was designated by the Division of Nursing Education at Columbia University, New York City, as one of the pilot schools in the Cooperative Research Project in Junior College Education for Nursing.

"Coming, Doctor."

Tricks of the trade.

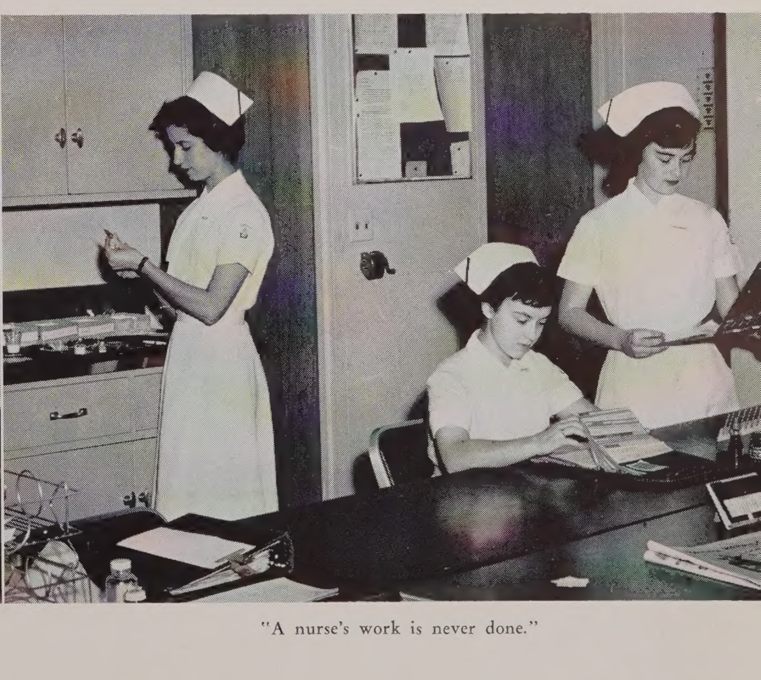
"John Brown's body—."



"Ah! I can breathe again!"

"It's really very simple. All you do is—."

"Cleanliness is next to Godliness."



"A nurse's work is never done."

Batter up!

Think those men are off the green yet?

Physical Education Department

September brings school, and with it, athletics of all types. In the fall it's "Keep that stick below your elbows, and the ball on the ground!" or "Whoa, Patches!" As cold weather sets in, the girls head indoors to volleyball, basketball, modern dancing, and swimming. Later, as the weather turns warm and spring

"Hit it!"

"Oh, my detergent hands!"

B is for bounce, basketball, Barber, and bravery.

And circle to the right.

begins to show, you will find a mighty slugger at the bat and a Robin Hood in front of the target. And if there's a girl left on campus who isn't sore from one or all these sports, there is still tennis, badminton, golf, and bowling.

All these sports are offered at Virginia Intermont, under the instruction of Mrs. Frank Barber, Mrs. Don Smith, and Miss Jane Jeter.

Fine participation in the intramural sports program is evidence that the Department of Physical Education is a popular one on campus.

"Up in the air, Junior Birdman!"

"Str-r-r-ike!!"

Science Department

The Department of Science is an important one at Virginia Intermont. It includes courses in biology, chemistry, and physics.

The biology program, under the instruction of Miss Barbara Stewart, consists of classes in botany, zoology, anatomy and physiology, and microbiology. Chemistry is taught by Miss Daphne Haynes, a newcomer to V. I. this year. Miss Haynes is responsible for the labs and lectures which come under general chemistry and qualitative and quantitative analysis. Mr. William G. Buckner teaches the third course, physics.

A large portion of the work accomplished in the Science Department is done in the laboratory under the supervision of these three teachers.

Ghastly, but true.

"Who says Russia will beat us to the moon?"

"Look at all those tiny, little, wiggly things!"

"Now, for just a few drams of concentrated H_2SO_4."

Secretarial Department

"a-s-d-f-j-k-l-;"

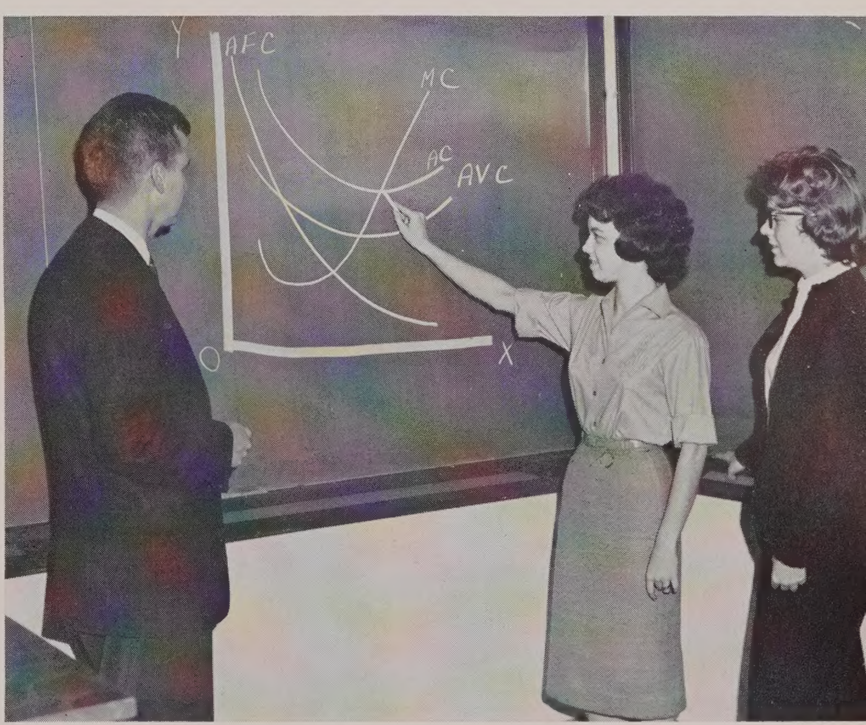
One of the largest and most popular departments at V.I. is the Secretarial Department.

In the various secretarial programs offered, students are prepared for positions as stenographers, general office assistants, secretaries, medical secretaries, retailers, and junior accountants.

In addition to the basic courses of shorthand and typewriting, this department provides secretarial training which will enable students to accept major responsibilities in whatever field they may choose.

The entire secretarial program is under the direction of Miss Mary Lou Smith.

Department of Social Studies



"So this is the point of diminishing returns!"

Very few girls leave V.I. without taking one or more subjects under the broad heading of Social Sciences. These influencial subjects are designed to inform and give the student an understanding of both past and present conditions and events which influence the many aspects of life today, and to encourage clear and objective thinking.

Included in the Social Science Department are classes in religion, instructed by Dr. Louis Taylor; psychology, instructed by Mr. Carl Todd; American history and sociology, instructed by Mrs. Dwight Willett; and political science, economics, and western civilization, instructed by Mr. Carl Holland.

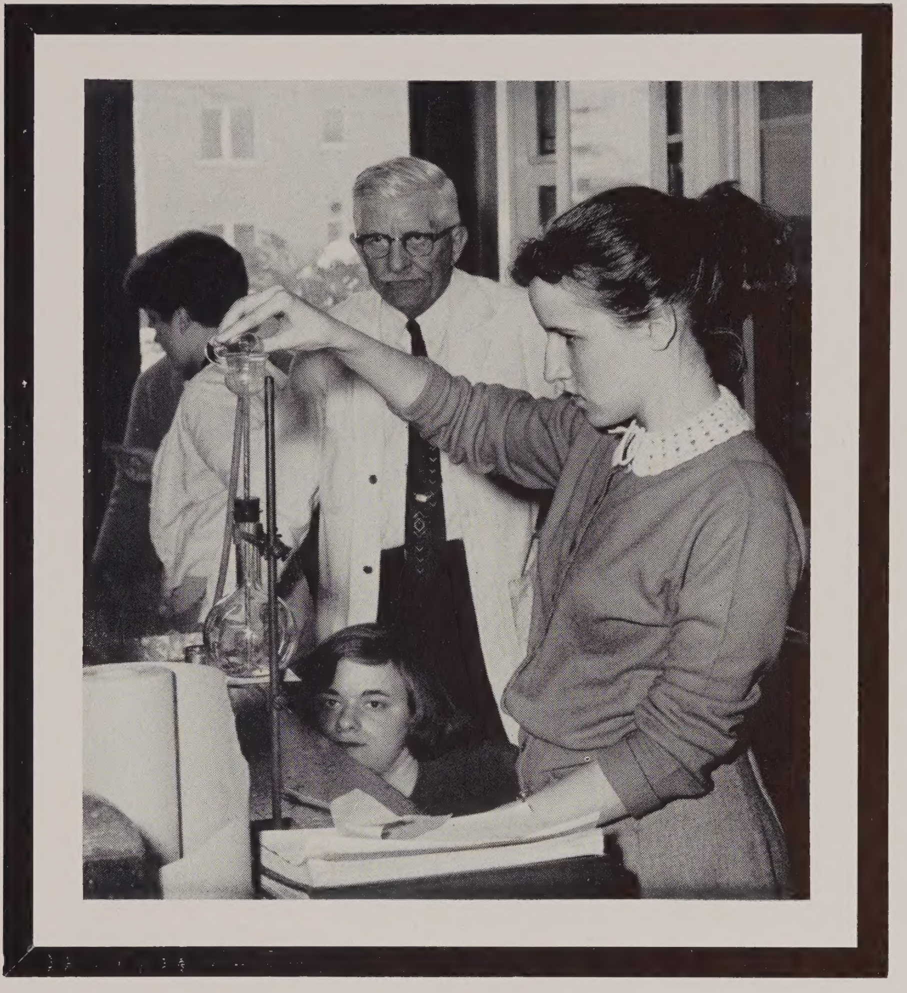
Thank You, "Mom J."

"Thank you" isn't a very big phrase, yet it means so much when it is addressed to a person whom we all love and admire. Our own "Mom J."

When someone feels blue, she just seems to be able to make her feel better with a few understanding words. When it comes to a pain or any other type of ill, "Mom J." is the one to cure it with her many pills and good advice.

It is difficult to say "good-bye" to such a fine person, but there comes a time in everyone's life that a good-bye will bring happiness. We all know that "Mom" has worked hard and there is no one more deserving to do the many things that she has planned for the future; however, V. I. will not be the same without her, as she is a part of its history to us.

We want you to know that we will miss you, but the memory of your kind heart and warm smile will remain forever in our hearts. "Thanks for everything, "Mom J."



IN MEMORIAM

With Spring there comes beauty and a new awakening to the campus of Virginia Intermont. However, the month of April, the year 1960, brought sadness to the hearts of many a faculty member and student, for it was in this month that we suffered a great loss.

A kind, understanding and loved man would no longer be found in the Hodges Hall chemistry lecture and laboratory rooms. That familiar setting to all of those who studied under Dr. S. J. Marion, was to be no more—strange it seemed to find another at his desk, teaching his subject and speaking the words of wisdom that he may have uttered had he been there with us.

Yes, our hearts are heavy with sorrow, but only because we, as human beings, are selfish, for somewhere, in the great eternal land, our beloved professor is happier than a life on earth could ever be.

Spring, Summer, Fall and Winter, all will pass from one year to another with each season possessing its own beauty. Someday, each of us will leave this earth, and the memory of Dr. Marion and of those he loved will fade on earth only to gain possession in eternal life.

Highlighting the many events scheduled by the committee were the trips to V.P.I. Also planned by the committee were "Charm Week," open houses, the trip to the Great Smokies, and excursions to various ballgames. The success of all the social activities at Virginia Intermont this year was due to the expert planning and organization of the Student Activities Committee.

THE 1961 INTERMONT STAFF

We, of the INTERMONT staff, would like to express our sincere appreciation to everyone who has helped us in the preparation and publication of this year's annual. We are especially grateful to Mr. Cooke, our advisor, without whose understanding, advice and aid, this yearbook would have never become a reality. A special 'thank you' also goes to Mr. Cummings, who spent so much time and patience in photographing all of our activities.

If, in future years, this book reminds you of the many friends and happy times you have had at V. I., the entire staff will feel that our job has been accomplished.

Editors screaming, writers frantically writing, typewriters pounding—it's the deadline! The paper should be ready for press and it will be, much to the editors' surprise and amazement, if the staff pulls through.

The Cauldron is presented to the student body each month with outstanding news, interesting events, highlighted personalities and coming campus attractions. The staff is a conglomeration of reporters, writers, typists and frustrated editors. They combine their various talents with the help of their advisor, Mr. Cooke, and come up with what is commonly known as Virginia Intermont's school paper, the Cauldron.

Do You Remember . . .

The multi-colored leaves of Autumn find V. I.'s campus flooded with girls, girls, and more girls. A sporadic array of blue and red beanies, welcoming smiles; tearful, but reassuring parents; pillows, stuffed animals, constituted the September 16, 1960's "Great Arrival." No sooner did the Juniors discover the way to the cafeteria from their rooms and back, than a huge yellow mist of bewilderment permeated the school in the horror of registration.

Scenic hues of Autumn splendor were not the only things on the V. I. campus. The Song Contest was budding from all miscellaneous crooks and crevices of the school. Two weeks of rigorous harmony blended into symphonic spirit and the Seniors felt happy forever after.

Snow blanketed the campus with twinkling silence. Winter saw green and red velvet gowns gliding to dance to the sounds of the Collegiates "Tenderly" at the Christmas Ball. The highlights of December were the yearning for home, Christmas, and that special boy.

March claims the first two weeks of Spring, the Effigy hunt and the Junior-Senior Basketball game. If one can imagine the campus being turned inside out by some 260 girls, pep rallies, class songs, good sportsmanship and skill, more than 400 girls screaming at one time, then one has viewed the reality of Effigy Day at V. I.

Synonymous with April are the sun decks laden with the early birds trying desperately for "the tropical look." The thermometer indicates warm, balmy days, but these days seem to go unnoticed as plans for Publications, May Day, and Graduation come to a climax.

The opening scene repeats itself, when the campus is overflowing with tearful, proud parents, pillows, stuffed dogs—yet there is a marked difference, in that the welcoming smiles are replaced with hesitant farewells, confusion and one last look at our "ole Alma Mater," as another chapter in the history of V. I. closes.
